René Magritte Project

René Magritte was a Belgian artist, well known for a number of witty and thought-provoking images that fall into the category of surrealism. His work is known for challenging people's perception of reality.

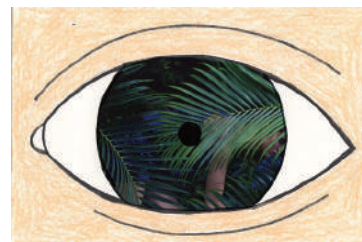

René Magritte's "The False Mirror"

1. Use CD to trace and cut out circle from magazine.

2. Trim circle as shown, glue to 6" x 9" paper and draw eye shape around it.

3. Trace eye lines with a black marker. Use colored pencil to fill in skin color.

4. Use dark pencil crayon to add skin shadows. Use a gray for shadows on white.
