

WHITNEY HILL ART RETREAT 2015

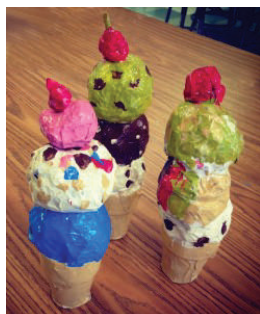

July 9 – 12, 2015

hosted by Art Projects for Kids and Whitney Hill Estates

If you'd like to learn about the latest new art projects from blogger and art teacher Kathy Barbro, while relaxing in the southern charm of the lovely Whitney Hill Estates, then sign up now for the second annual retreat on July 9-12, 2015. Last summer's weekend was so fun and well-received that we can't wait to bring it back again. Below are just a few of the projects that will be featured over the long, creative weekend.

Paper Mache Ice Cream Cones

Mache is great for sculpture projects as it is inexpensive and recycles paper. These cones can be made by children of all ages, as the not-so-neat ones end up looking to be in stages of melting. You can't lose!

3D Paper Crafts

Children love to make 3D sculpture, but it's not easy to find something that is affordable and doesn't require lots of preparation. Once mastered, this paper cat can easily be altered to make a lion or many other four legged creatures.

Matchbox Crafts

Once you learn how to fold the trays of these little boxes, all kinds of projects are possible. Students color the insert and wrapper themselves, and may turn these little boxes into anything that has a inside and an outside.

Pop Out Heart Cards

All you need is a heart punch and some pretty patterned paper to make this super-easy pop out card. And a homemade card beats a fancy store bought one any day.

Retreat Itinerary

Thursday, July 9th

Guests arrive, and after settling into one of the 10 cozy bedrooms, take a tour with owner Regina Brotherton of the historic house that was once a retreat for the affluent northern business tycoons. Meet your fellow artists over your first gourmet meal made by Regina in the main dining room.

Friday, July 10th

Begin the day with a buffet breakfast, followed by a morning class taught by Kathy Barbro in the studio barn. Guests will break for lunch (and maybe even a nap!) and then attend another class. Delta Style afternoon tea and hors d'oeuvres will break up the day until dinner is served in the dining room. Later, swap your favorite art stories with friends around the cozy living room.

Saturday, July 11th

Spend another day with a prepared breakfast, followed by a morning class, then lunch and an afternoon class in the studio barn. The final evening meal with your new friends will be served in the dining room, followed by more of whatever appeals to guests as they prepare to wrap up their visit.

Sunday, July 12th

A buffet breakfast will be offered before guests leave for home, with retreat notebook filled with all the lessons plans that the weekend covered.

Some of the last summer's retreat projects included lessons on Monet, Magritte, and several How to Draw tutorials.
